

2008 Alpha Epsilon Chapter Awards

Instructions: Complete all three pages of the application. Signatures from the chapter president, chapter advisor, and department head are required on page 3. Applications must be received by April 15, 2008. Awards will be announced at the Alpha Epsilon meeting this summer in Providence, Rhode Island.

Most Outstanding Chapter: $400
New Project Seed Money: $250
Most Improved Chapter: $200

Chapter: _____

University: _____

Award Contact Information

Contact Person: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

Current Officers

President: _____

Vice President: _____

Secretary: _____

Treasurer: _____

Advisor: _____

Current Alpha Epsilon Membership Information

Number of undergraduate students: _____

Number of graduate students: _____

Number of new initiates during the past year: _____

Meetings Held During 07-08 Academic Year

Number of chapter meetings: _____

Number of officer meetings: _____

Please describe activities of 2007-2008 academic year in paragraph form.

Educational Activities:

Service Activities:

Professional Activities:

Activities and Goals Planned for 08-09 Academic Year (be specific for consideration of the New Project Seed Money):

Describe the mission of your Alpha Epsilon chapter and how it impacts both students and professionals in the agricultural and biological engineering profession:

If you would like to be considered for the most improved chapter award, briefly discuss how your chapter's activity level has changed over the last few years.

Signatures:

Chapter President

Chapter Advisor

Department Head

Email (preferred) or Mail Completed Application to:
Jeremiah Davis, EIT
Department of Agricultural & Biosystems Engineering
Iowa State University
100 Davidson Hall
Ames, IA 50011
Email: davisj@iastate.edu